

Keep the xm instant traffic & weather service on the air. It is provided all day long, not just rush hours like other stations provide. Also, when you are out of range of local radio stations, xm service is there. That way you can make adjustments before you get into the middle of a problem. This is a great service for truck drivers and the general public, so keep xm instant traffic & weather on the air!!!